TELEPHONE COMPANY SETTLES DAMAGES

Corporation Sends Check for Large Sum to Mrs. Perkins to Settle Judgment

On last Tuesday, through her attorneys, Mrs. J. F. Perkins received a check from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company for $29,496,-39 in settlement of a judgment awarded her by the superior court of this county, for injuries received due to the negligence of the defendant corporation.

This is the third largest judgment ever awarded in the state for personal injuries and the largest in the history of the county.

In the early sprng of 1906 the Telephone company was making extensive improvements to its system in this city. The company's workmen had dug many holes along the public streets and in many instances neglected to cover them up so as to protect pedestrians.

Mrs Perkins, one evening, was unfortunate enough to fall in one of these holes on Stanley sreet, in front of Dr. E. G. Case's residence, and sustained injuries from which she has never recovered. The lady was unable to get out of the hole without help and it was some little time before a passing citizen rendered assistance. She was immediately removed to her home and medical aid summoned.

A few day afterwards a representative of the Telephone company called on Mrs. Perkins and succeeded in getting a release from her for all further claims for damages for the sum of $500. Later the attorneys for Mrs. Perkins bought the matter into court, and on proof that Mrs. Perkins was an incompetent at the time she signed the release, the $500 settlement was set aside.

The case was brought to trial before the superior court of this county in March, 1907, and after a hard fought case in which there was a noted array of legal talent for the corporation the jury rendered a verdict in favor of Mrs. Perkins and awarded her $25,000 damages. The defendants filed an appeal before the supreme court, which was denied, and determined to fight to the last ditch a petition to the highest tribunel for a rehearing in the action was filed, and the last recourse was also futile as the supreme court promptly denied the petition on the 23rd of last month. Thirty days is allowed to settle an action where a judgment has been awarded, and the company apparently gave up all hope of further successful litigation in the matter and paid the judgment with the accrued interest and costs.

Mrs. J. F. Perkins has been a confirmed invalid since the accident having been bed-ridden most of the time. Paralysis of the right side caused by the injuries received has made the unfortunate lady practically helpless.

The attorneys for Mrs. Perkins who so successfuly managed the case and caused the large corporation to pay for its negligence were J. W. Preston and Arthur J. Thatcher, of this city, and since the successful termination of the case these gentlemen have been receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

WILL EQUALIZE ASSESSMENTS

City Trustees Meet as Board of Equalization

On Monday the board of town trustees met in an adjourned session, and also as a board of equalization.

Several property owners appeared at the meeting and asked for a reuction on their asessments. Trustees Smith and Brown were appointed a committee to examine the roll, and also to investigate into the merits of he reductions asked for, and to report at a meeting to be held on August 16th.

Two claims against the city were examined and past at the meeting. No further business was transacted.

Fred H. Loring, ediror of the Willits News, was in Ukiah for a short while on Tuesday. Mr. Lor- had been taking a short vacation in San Francisco and stopped in Ukiah between trains.

LIVELY MIXUP AT HOSTELRY

Enraged Guest at the Palace Makes Noise Like a Scrapper—Gets Decision

Last Monday at the noon hour, while the dining room at the Palace Hotel was filled with guests, Charles Dunlap, who manages a large wood ranch near Calpella, became engaged in an altercation with a waiter over the proper service of the meals ordered. The waiter made a remark to the guest which the latter took exception to and to give forcible emphysis to his exception he knocked the aforesaid waiter down.

Chaos reigned supreme immediately. The waiter gathered himself up and proceeded to hunt for outdoor scenery— his assailant hot on his trail. The hotel office was reached--the angry guest running a close second, and the waiter was again in the toils of the aspirant for pugilistic honors. The hotel staff, including bell boys, porters, clerks, bartenders and one or two interested bystanders rushed into the fray, all endeavoring to do a charitable act in rescuing the tip-taking employee from the wrath of Dunlap.

The latter was intent on the business that he had in hand, and proceeded to demonstrate very strenuously that he was able to take care of himself, and it was a shame the way the peace makers took the count.

At one time four of the assailants were on the floor—they fell right and left and Dunlap looked for new worlds to conquer.

Just then "Mine Host" Sandelin appeared on the field of battle. He received a reminder that his services were not needed, so "he turned around and walked right out again."

The irate guest soon had the office to himself—the employees found that their services were needed elsewere at once. A disinterested party stepped to the front and remonstrated with Dunlap and he too got his in the jaw. Dunlap finding that there was nothing more doing in the fighting line left the scene of battle and departed for his home.

It is rumored that Frank Sandelin has joined the Ukiah Athletic Club, and has engaged the services of an expert in the manly art of self defense. He has also declared that he is in favor of limited round contests.

PRINTER RECEIVES WINDFALL

Former Resident Of Ukiah Receives Reward For Kindness

In the last issue of the Clear Lake Press the following article appeared concerning O. L. Standley, who was was formerly a foreman in the Dispatch office:

Otho L. Standley, who has been out of work and on the sick list for a year and a half, has erected a small building on his home lot on Fourth street and will install a small printing outfit which he has acquired at intervals. When completed he expects to engage in the printing business to the extent of his strength, and teach the trade to his oldest son. Stanley came into a windfall this week, which reads like a novel. About three years ago, while foreman on a Ukiah paper, he befriended an itinerant printer who aked for work. This week, the man, John Houston, returning with a comfortable fortune from British Columbia, looked for Stanley at Ukiah, and learning there of his present residence and sickness, came over here in an automobile, and pressed on Stanley a check for $500, as a repayment, with substantial interest, of the latter's former kindness to him.

Commercial Bank Building

The Commercial Bank building is nearing completion. Mechanics are now engaged in the interior finishing. All the wood is of oak, highly polished, and left in the naturnal color. The directors room is directy over the large vault and from this point of view all the workings of the bank can be viewed. All the large French plate windows are in place. Contractor La Porte is endeavoring to have the work finished by the first of September.

FINANCING FOR LAKE COUNTY ROAD

Subscriptions For $400,000 of Stock Is Asked For From Interested Land Owners

Dr. A. E. Dickinson of Ukiah, president of the Sonoma and Lake county Railway Company, in an interview with the Press editor Monday, told something of the plans and prospects of that proposed road out of Lake county. As is well known, the company has made a complete survey from Lakeport to Preston, and from there to Santa Rosa, the whole line being, according to the judgment of most observers, the shortest practicable line from this end of the county, to, as far as it goes, tidewater, and San Francisco, says the Clear Lake Press.

The company which is composed of Lakeport and Ukiah citizen, has been working steadily for two years carrying out their project. It is now up to the point of financing, and Dr. Dickinson stated that the company has an offer of subscription of the entire bond issue of $1,500,000, providing $400,000 worth off stock is subscribed by the people interested, along the line of the road. No prescribed price is required to be set on the stock, and the promoters may sell it at half its par value. A good committee of Santa Rosa citizens has been appoitned and the work of soliciting started there. It is hoped to raise $200,000 there, $75,000 at Healdsburg or in Alexander Valley, and $125,000 in Lake county. If this is done, and the directors feel confident that it can be, there will be nothing in the way they say, of immediate construction work.

BOYS CAUSE SHORT CIRCUIT

Interfering With Lines of Electric Company Dangerous Sport

On several occasions during the past few months parties have been interfering with the lines of the Snow Mountain & Power Company, by throwing loose wires across the transmission line and causing a short circuit in the current, and otherwise putting the company to a great deal of trouble.

It is presumed that boys have been guilty of these lawless acts. About two weeks ago a piece of loose baling wire was thrown over the line between Ukiah and the sub-station at Talmage. The current was short-circuited causing the lights and power in Ukiah to be off temporarily and causing considerable damage at the sub-station. Such acts as these are a most dangerous pastime for any one to indulge in, as the company's wire carry a very heavy voltage, one that would kill a man instantly, and should a wire or any other conductor be thrown on the transmission line and an end touch a person death would be instantaneous. All parties are warned to refrain from further acts of this character.

Tendered a Reception

At the close of the regular meeting of the Casimir Chapter, O. E. S., on last Tuesday evening the members thereof tendered a reception to Dr. Ida M. Malpas, whose marriage some five months ago was recently made public. A dainty luncheon was served in the banquet hall and a season of pleasure and good cheer was enjoyed by all. As a token of the esteem and friendship in which the Doctor is held by the members of Casimir she was presented with several pieces of siverware, suitably inscribed. J. L. McNab made the presentation speech. Many toasts were given to a long and happy wedded life for the bride.

Band Takes An Outing

Last Sunday Keller's Band spent the day on Robinson creek, and the members of the organization indulged in a royal good time. A sheep was barbecued by Chefs Van Voast and Nutter, and all the boys have been bleating ever since. Tug-of-war and a base ball game occupied the time of the horn blowers during the day. The score in the latter game was 49 to 83 and the last 16 tallies were not counted.

RELATIVE TO THE COUNTY'S WEALTH

Board of Supervisors Notified to Appear Before State Board Regarding Assessments

The State Board of Equalization has notified the board of supervisors of this county, through the clerk thereof, to appear before them at a meeting to be held in San Francisco on August 21st, and show cause, if any they have, why the assessed valuation of Mendocino county should not be raised.

Similar notices have been served on the boards of supervisors in thirty other counties in the state.

Some time ago the State Board of Equalization requested that the Ukiah Board of Trade appoint a committee to investigate and report to the assessed valuation of lands within the county. Messrs. J. H. Barker, P. Connolly and F. Albertson were the committee aappointed.

Should the assessed valuation be raised 25 per cent it will increase the valuation of all property to the sum of about $20,000,000, and would decrease the county tax rate proportionaly.

County Assessor M. A. Thomas reports that the county assesments were increased over $600,000 during 1908, and during the present year $500,000 will be added to the roll. This makes over one million dollars in two years.

The total assessment for this year including the railroad properties will amount to $16,000,000.

When Assessor Thomas went into office in 1898 the county rolls shows that the assessed valuation of all property within the county was $9,-000,000. The present roll shows an increase of $7,000,000 during the past eleven years. This goes to show that notwithstanding the large depreciation of the timber lands, owing to timber cut off, that the county is gradually increasing in a most substantial manner.

PLAN FOR CITRUS FAIR EXHIBIT

Citizens of Cloverdale Take Steps for New $8,000 Building

On last Monday there was a large and enthusiastic gathering of citizens and residents for the purpose of considering the future of the Citrus Fair Association at Cloverdale.

D. G. Furber acted as chairman and C. L. Sedgley as secretary. It was decided to take over the large holding of stock from C. E. Humbert at $12.50 per share, although it was valued at from $17.50 to $20, and sell it in lots of not to exceed 10 shares at $12.50 per share.

A committee consisting of Dr W O Shipley, S Pinschower and Mrs I. E. Shaw was named to sell the stock. A number of these present subscribed for stock. It is the desire to scatter the stock and interest more residents finacially in the annual exhibit and raise sufficient funds to erect an $8,000 pavilion in time for next year's fair.

Trainman Injured On The Noyo

Last week James Gordon, a train man on the Fort Bragg railroad was seriously injured on the north fork of the Noyo river. He was riding in the cab of the locomotive and stuck his head out of the window as they were passing the water tank. He struck a heavy brace that supported the tank and as a result he received a fractured jaw, concussion of the brain, fracture of the right shoulder, nose almost torn off, and numerous lacerations of the scalp. He is under treatment at the Fort Bragg hospital.

A Successful Operation

Claude Van Dyke, the son of Tax Collector Van Dyke was taken to San Francisco on Tuesday morning, by Dr. Liftchild, to be operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successfully performed that afternoon, and latest reports from the St. Francis hospital, are to the effect that the patient is recovering from the shock, and if no complications arise, will soon be on the road to a rapid recovery.

BIG HERD OF DEER INVADES HOPLAND

Fierce Mountain Fire Drives Game Into Sanel Valley and Sixteen are Killed

Last week a fierce forest fire ranged over Duncan's Peak and the surrounding hills south of Hopland. This was the first time in over thirty years that a fire has burned over these mountains and they were consequently covered with a heavy growth of timber and underbrush. It is claimed that careless hunters are responsible for the conflagration.

The fire started on the south side of the Peak and ranged northward, and when the flames started down the north side towards Sanel valley deer and other wild animals were seen rushing before the devouring element. They sought safety in the grain fields about three-quarters of a mile south of Hopland. It is estimated that there were several hundred animals in the herd.

The news of the invasion soon spread abroad, and every one who had a gun or could borrow a weapon was soon on the ground. The frightened deer bunched up and the slaughter commenced, and in a short time sixteen bucks had been killed and many others wounded, but the latter were successful in getting away. The excitement was intense among the hunters; the reports of the rifles sounded like a skirmish line advancing into battle. In the herd was seen a large number of does and fawns and the sportsmen had to be very careful in shooting for fear that they would be guilty of breaking the game laws.

The surviving animals of the herd finally escaped to the hills in the west of the valley. It is said that they resembled a band of cattle running, there being such a large number of them. Venison was the principal article on the bill of fare in Hopland homes many days. This was a buck roundup that was not advertised.

GAME WARDENS DENY CHARGE

Arrested Officers Will Answer Charge in Ukiah Today

Game Wardens Lea and Miller returned to this city last Sunday from Point Arena, where they had been to prosecute two cases for the alleged infractions of the game laws, and at which place the two officers were arrested on a charge of failing to comply with the county ordinances which prohibits shooting on the public highways.

The preliminary hearing against the officers was held in Point Arena last Friday and the defendants succeeded in getting a change of venue to this city and the cases will be heard before Justice Crockett today. The officers state that their arrest was simply a piece of spite work on the part of the informers and that there is absolutely no proof against them. The game wardens claim that the members of the parties were shootng doves about 100 yards distant from the county road, and that one of the hunters, on returning to their conveyance extracted two shells from his gun letting them fall in the county road, and on the strength of finding these shells in the road the arrests were made.

The "Call of the Wild"

On last Thursday a camping party of W. P. Thomas and family, Dr. E. G. Case and family, Anderson Thomas, Miss Kate Thomas, and Marvin Ford left Ukiah for a two week's camping trip in the wilds of San Hedrin. The male members of the party are noted hunters, and a successful outing is assured them.

Died at County Farm

Major A. J. Anderson, who has been an inmate at the county hospital for the past two and a half years, died at that place on Wednesday morning, aged about 70 years. The deceased was an old soldier and had held several federal positions. He was a very large man weighing about 325 pounds. Heart disease was the cause of his demise. He was buried in the Ukiah cemetery.

FALLS 700 FEET AND STILL LIVES

Remarkable Accident Near Cloverdale in Which the Victim Escapes Death

William McDonald, of Oakland, who has been spending his vacation at McCrae's resort on Russian river, north of Cloverdale, met with an accident on Monday while driving over the Geyser road, and though the unfortunate man was thrown over a cliff and fell about 700 feet to the creek bed below he still lives.

McDonald accompanied by John Cooley and wife and a lady friend started out Monday morning on a day's outing up Sulphur creek canyon on the Geyser road. The party were in a light road wagon drawn by a team of young horses. The day was pleasantly spent in fishing, and about 5 p. m. the party started back to the resort. They had reached the summit when suddenly a big automobile came around a sharp curve. The appearance of the machine was so unexpected that the horess shied to one side of the road.

McDonald was driving. He tried to control the frightened animals, and seeing that an accident was inevitable he shouted to his companions to jump to safety. They did so, landing safely in the road. McDonald remained in the wagon, ready to get out as soon as the rest of the party were safe. But before he could save himself the team gave a jump and the wagon, horses and driver went off the grade and over the bluff. From the edge of the road there is a sharp declivity, which is known as the Devil's Slide for about 100 feet. The horses and wagon rolled over and over the slide. At the edge of the precipice McDonlad's body shot out of the wagon and dropped into space.

His companions hurried down a foot trail to the bottom of the canyon expecting to find the mangled remains of their friend, never doubting that a horrible death would be the fate of the man who had given his life to save them. To their astonishment he was still alive though horribly injured, he had dropped 700 feet into the bottom of the canyon. Both horses were killed and the wagon a wreck, yet McDonald was alive and conscious.

The injured man was taken to McCrae's and he expressed a desire to be taken to his home in Oakland. The doctors consented to him taking the trip. He arrived home late that evening.

After making a thorough examination of the man's injuries the attending physician found that he was suffering from a compound fracture of the left leg, several broken ribs, right hip badly mashed, cut from head to foot, several wounds on the head that may prove to be fractures, and lungs punctured by the broken ribs. It may be necessary to amputate his left leg. The physicians states that McDonald has a fighting chance for his life.

WAS ARRESTED IN HOPLAND

Deputy Sheriff Kidd Captures Man Wanted in Sonoma County

Lew Banks of Cloverdale, a warrant for whose arrest was issued several days ago in Santa Rosa for passing a fraudulent check for $100 upon the Bank of Cloverdale, was arrested in Hopland on Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Kidd of the latter place.

The warrant was sworn to by F. O. Brant of Healdsburg, who had received the worthless paper and a search has been going on for Banks since that time. The Mendocino county officials were notified with the foregoing result. The prisoner was taken to Santa Rosa on Wednesday afternoon. Banks was unaware of the warrant being out for him, that fact being kept out of the newspapers until his arrest was made.

Russian Princesses.

In Russia the term "princess" does not mean very much, for the simple reason that there are so many of them and that it is never a royal title. All the female descendants of a prince of a certain rank are princesses, and the result is that many princesses are as poor and of as little account as any ill used princess of a fairy tale. The real royal princesses of Russia are styled grand duchesses. They are the daughters and sisters of the czar.

PSYCHIC HEALING TEST

Methodists Grant Rev. A. T. Osbron a Year For His Plan.

COMPLAINTS LED TO ACTION.

Conference of Ministers and Laymen Will Pass Judgment on Missouri Clergyman at End of His Test—Camp in Ozark Mountains Will Be Opened For Patients.

An Ozark mountain beauty spot near a new town named Mount View, in Howell county, Mo., is to be the scene of a prolonged test of the value of "psychic healing" for the use of ministers of the orthodox churches. If the test is successful Methodist ministers throughout Missouri may be informed to practice psychic healing whenever they see fit. The Rev. Dr. Andrew T. Osbron, pastor of the Bennington Heights M. E. church of Kansas City, Mo., is to make the experiment. The decision of the conference was to suspend judgment upon Dr. Osbron and his methods until the next annual conference.

The conference did not indorse Dr. Osbron's endeavors to mix metaphysics and preaching. He had not asked for indorsement—only a chance to make a test, and that was granted. Already seventy-five patients have applied to him, and in less than a month the Ozark camp may be opened.

The Emmanuel movement in Kansas City as led by Dr. Osbron had reached such proportions a few months ago as to cause complaints that the leader could not take care of it and his church routine at the same time. So, actuated by complaints made to him in a mass meeting held in his church and by the warnings of certain of his colleagues in the ministry, Dr. Osbron handed in his resignation, and when the state conference met at Sedalia in last April he asked that body just what attitude the church was going to take toward mental science and its allied branches. The ministers and leading laymen of the church answered in effect, "We do not indorse you, but we will stand by you as interested spectators and watch you for a year before we render judgment."

In 1905 this same minister while stationed at Jackson, Mo., stirred the M. E. Church South with a similar question and was censured, then vindicated. His own account of that affair is that ever since his boyhood he has been a student of psychology, psycho-therapy, mental science, spiritualism and even of the tricks of the conjurer and that he prepared a lecture on "Mind and Mystery," embodying the results of his studies and giving practical demonstrations of the fakes that are often practiced.

He announced that he would give the lecture and set the date. The board of directors of his church asked him not to do so, saying that they did not wish to antagonize a strong community of spiritualists living near Jackson, in the town of Millerville. Dr. Osbron's answer was brief, "I will give the lecture."

He did and immediately afterward was asked to resign. With the consent of his bishop he left his charge, then spent the summer continuing to give the lecture that had caused the trouble. In September he had tired of dress suits and kerosene footlights and asked to be given a charge. This was refused. So when the M. E. Church South met in conference at Birmingham, Ala., he went there to petition the committee on episcopacy. Though he tried several times to get a hearing, he was shut out. What to do next under such circumstances puzzled him.

The problem finally was solved for him by a reporter, who called in half a dozen other newspaper men and told Dr. Osbron to detail to them the circumstances of his case. The following day the minister got a hearing without delay. The bishop who had been most prominent in the attack was censured, and Dr. Osbron was given the desired credentials. He used these papers to gain entrance to the main body of the M. E. church.

He went to Kansas City in August, 1907, after two years in southern Missouri. In the spring of 1908 he again began giving the lecture on "Mind and Mystery" and made, it is said, a number of cures by psycho-therapy and suggestion. His fame spread until the patients—by his own confession—took up almost as much time as the pastorate.

Then trouble began. Some of the congregation pointed out that in their day Methodist ministers didn't study conjurer's tricks or dabble in hypnotism or expose the "art" of the Bangs sisters, and they said they didn't intend to have the name of the Bennington Heights church used in connection with such things. And when it became necessary to hire a deaconess to help Dr. Osbron with his church routine and patients began to come in from out of town to be treated the dissatisfied members grumbled louder and louder.

So many patients came after a few more weeks that Dr. Osbron prudently trained some assistants to help him treat—"started a school," his enemies said. Then came the mass meeting and the resignation.—New York World.

Woman on the Bench.

Hyman Lazarus, for many years recorder of Bayonne, knew the people who came before him. When a woman appeared to accuse a husband who had beaten her he said, "If I send him to jail you'll come back here tomorrow in tears and ask me to let him out." "No," she said, "I will not. I'd like to have him punished." "How much shall I give him then," asked Lazarus—"two months, one month, six months?" The woman, who had begun to relent, was speechless. "I'll tell you what I'll do," he said. "You come up here and take my chair, and whatever sentence you pronounce will go." The woman hesitated, but the recorder insisted. The husband was arraigned before her, and the recorder in a gruff voice ordered her to pronounce sentence. "Six months, three months, two months, a month—quick," he said; "let us have it." The woman burst into tears. She and her husband embraced and went out of court rejoicing. "There!" said Lazarus. "If you come back I'll give you six months each."—New York Press.

Dropping the Curtain.

"No, Mr. Slowun," said the fair possessor of the square chin, "I must respectfully decline to become your other half."

"But why?" asked the astonished young man, who had believed that he was the favored one.

"Because," replied the female extender of the frosty digit, "the man I marry must be brave and fearless. Tonight you let out the information that you have loved me for five long, weary years, but have not dared mention it until the present meeting. A man who has no more nerve than that would hide under the bed while his wife went downstairs to interview a burglar who was making a raid on the family larder. Therefore, Mr. Slowun, I will work the piano for a little slow music while the curtain drops on the farewell scene. You will find your hat on the usual peg of the hall rack."

POINT ARENA AND VICINITY

A Resume of South Coast News Taken From the "Record"

Dr Pitts is mending rapidly with his broken leg and expects to be around in a couple of weeks.

A pronounced earthquake shock was felt by the people living on the river a few nights ago.

The Winnebago is sinking gradually each day. The half million feet of lumber still in the hold stays with her.

Stanley Ketchel was down from the springs Wednesday. Willis Britt, Ketchel's manager arrived yesterday and left for the springs.

Mrs. Alice L. Pollard has returned from Alameda and is again in charge of the Greenwood Hotel, having about recovered from her serious illness.

Mr. Hanen, the editor,, is now enjoying a few week' vacation with his mother, at the homestead, in Anderson valley, the climate of which is the hottest that editors ever have the privilege of going to, and where he will sweat out the all meaness accumulated in the newspaper business since his last vacation.

The attention of the trustees is called to the congested condition of the grammar school. In several of the grades the seating capacity is insufficient and two pupils at times are compelled to occupy one seat. This defect should be remedied at once and the children given a chance to expand, physically as well as mentally; in other words—give them more elbow room.

Point Arena had a deserted look Sunday, as nearly every one turned out on the beach to view the wreck and watch the busy citizen workers catch the drift lumber and tug it to a place of safety above high tide. The bluff for a half a mlie near the light house was covered with a string of buggies, wagons, bicycles and automobiles,and with a joyous, jolly-making crowd of three or four hundred men, women and children, (some of whom had taken their lunch), made the scene resemble that of a Donnybrook fair.

THE CORDON BLEU.

At First an Order For Women Cooks Established by Louis XV.

When you hear a man spoken of as a "cordon bleu" you know he is a great cook, but few people have any idea of how and when the expression originated. The cordon bleu was at first an order for women cooks. It was established by a king—which makes it a real, proper order. Louis XV. once asserted to Mme. du Barry that only men could cook really well. The famous beauty challenged the assertion, but the king insisted that he was right—that women might be all right for boiling potatoes and performing the simpler operations of cooking, but that when it came to a work of art it took a man.

Soon after this argument the royal favorite invited the king to dinner. He praised every dish; he even expressed his august approval of the menu as a whole. Then his hostess triumphantly announced to him that the entire dinner had been prepared by women, from the arrangement of the menu and the selection of the dishes to the preparation of the sauces and the sweets and the serving of the several plats. Accordingly she claimed the foundation of an order of merit for her female cooks. The claim was at once granted, and the cordon bleu was first conferred upon the women of Mme. du Barry's kitchen.

Gourmets of today would be inclined to say that, however great the cooks of Mme. du Barry may have been in their day, the dictum of Louis XV. would be true today. There are now few great hotels or restaurants in the world in which cookery is a fine art where the chef is not a man.—New York World.

HE COULD DRAW.

Artemus Ward on His Own Connection With the Art.

On the occasion of Artemus Ward's professional visit to London, which occurred not long before his death, J. E. Preston Muddock says in his book, "Pages From an Adventurous Life," that the American humorist's advertisements of his "show" were as full of funny surprises as the lectures themselves. One that tickled the general public was this:

Artemus Ward Delivered Lectures Before All the Crowned Heads of Europe Ever Thought of Delivering Lectures.

And an excerpt from his lecture on "Drawing" is quoted by Mr. Muddock as a particularly delightful bit.

"I haven't distinguished myself as an artist," Ward said in his inimitable way, "but have always been mixed up in art. I have an uncle who takes photographs in his sane moments, and I have a servant who takes everything he can lay his hands on at any moment.

"At a very tender age I could draw on wood. When a mere child I once drew a small cart load of raw turnips over a wooden bridge. It was a raw morning. The people of the village recognized me. They said it was a raw turnip drawing That shows how faithfully I had copied nature. I drew their attention to it, so you see there was a lot of drawing in it.

"The villagers, with the wonderful discernment peculiar to villagers, said I had a future before me. As I was walking backward when I made my drawing I replied that I thought that my future must be behind me."

But He Couldn't Do It Without His Wife's Able Assistance.

"George, I wish you would hang that rose picture tonight."

"All right, my dear, I'll do it now. Get me the stepladder."

"I should think you might get the stepladder yourself."

"Where is it?"

"Where it is always kept. On the top of the cellar stairs."

"That's where it is supposed to be. Where is it now?"

"It is either there or up in the back room, or—let me see—I loaned it to Mrs. Johnson yesterday. No, she brought it back, and I left it on the back porch. Oh, yes, I know where it is. You'll find it in the pantry off the kitchen."

After twenty minutes' search the ladder is discovered. George locates the spot for the picture and climbs up.

"Now hand me the picture, my dear."

"Yes, here it is."

"Where's the hammer?"

"I thought you had it."

"You thought I had it! You knew very well I didn't have it. Get it for me right away."

"Where's the nail?"

"Didn't you get a nail either?"

"No, I didn't get a nail either. I supposed if you wanted me to hang a picture you'd have the tools ready. Where's the picture cord?"

"Well, for heaven's sake! Why didn't you look to see if there was picture cord on it before you went up there to hang it?"

"Get me the cord and don't stop to argue. I'm getting dizzy up here."

"Well, here's the cord. What else do you suppose you'll want?"

"Well, I don't want any more of your lip. I can hang this picture without that!"

Whereupon she left him to get along as best he could. "Just like a man," she remarked as the hammer fell to the floor.

"Just like a woman," he muttered as he descended. "Just like a woman. They've got nothing to do and all the time in the world to do it, and then, by jingo, they leave it to a man!"

A letter received from B. L. Elliott states that he and Mrs Elliot are at present stopping at Los Angeles, where Mr. Ellliot is receiving medical treatment, and they will remain there for a few weeks. Since leaving Imperial, Mr. and Mr. Elliott have visited friends in San Diego. They expect to return to Imperial in November, but will likely come north and visit Mendocino before so doing.

At a meeting of the Good Government League Monday night considerable business was transacted, all looking to the upbuilding of the town. Among other things accomplished was the creation of a board of trustees to have power to negotiate for the lease and repair of the old Temperance hall, and to put it into condition for a reading room and amusement hall for men. The reading room on Main street will be absorbed by the new combination. Parties are now negotiating for the refreshment concession and the deal will probably be closed this week.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN.

Learn the cause of daily woes and end them.

When the back aches and throbs
When house work is torture
When night brings no rest or sleep
When urinary disorders set in
Womens' lot is a weary one

There is a way to escape these woes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills.

Have cured women here in Ukiah. This is one Ukiah Woman's testimony.

Mrs. L. Shoell, living at 1010 Clay St, Ukiah, Cal., says: "When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I was suffering from kidney trouble and backache which had bothered me for a long time. As soon as I began taking this remedy, however, the trouble left me and I have not been bothered since. My back is now strong, my kidneys do not bother me by their frequent action, in fact, my general heath is so much improved that I feel I cannot praise Doan's Kidney Pills too strongly."

D. F. Kinsey

Rhinoceros a Bad Foe.

While easily stalked, the rhinoceros is a dangerous customer, as most men will agree who have hunted him. If the rhinoceros gets one's scent he almost invariably charges, often probably from sheer curiosity, but that does not make him any the easier to dispose of. Moreover, he runs and turns at a speed inconceivable in a beast of his vast bulk. Against his massive, sloping head the heaviest bullet is a mere flea bite, leaving no possibility of a stopping shot except with a hard nose ball sent fairly into the heart through the chest. An alternative is to stand absolutely motionless, when with his bad eyesight there is a possibility he may mistake you for a tree and veer past. Indeed, the best ruse in the crisis of any charge is to stand fast and still, for even the unwounded lion sometimes swerves in his charge and retires before a man who has the nerve to wait his coming.—Edgar Beecher Bronson in Century.

Effect of Fear.

A vigorous young greengrocer, aged twenty-seven, was arrested on a Tuesday on charges of drunkenness and assaulting a policeman, who was assisted in securing him by a Mr. Lyons. On Wednesday it was announced in court that Mr. Lyons was dead, and the greengrocer was remanded to see whether the coroner's jury would hold him in any way responsible for the tragedy. By Saturday it had been found that Mr. Lyons' death was due to heart disease of long standing, but meanwhile the agonizing suspense had aged the young prisoner terribly, his black hair having become completely white.—Pall Mall Gazette.

No Picnic.

A Junction City man told of a remark made by a woman at whose home a number of people took supper one night during a political campaign in Sumner county. This particular woman, though young in years, was the mother of seven children. Naturally the children were reasonably close to one size. When the "campaigners" went into the woman's house one of them noticed the bunch of children and said to the woman in a friendly way, "These all yours, or is this a picnic?" "They are all mine," she replied wearily, "and it's no picnic."—Kansas City Journal.

Tipped.

"Doesn't this boat tip a great deal?" asked a timid young woman of the steward.

"The vessel, ma'am," said the steward, "is trying to set a good example to the passengers."

An Attraction.

Mrs. Gillet—So there is a tablet in your transept to her memory. Did she do anything to bring people into the church? Mrs. Perry—Well, she wore a new hat every Sunday for three years.

HATE TO QUIT LEPER COLONY.

Persons Ordered Away For Examination Want to Return, Even if Well.

One of the curious phases of life at the Molokai leper settlement was illustrated when seven persons from the settlement were taken to Honolulu, in Hawaii, a few days ago to be reexamined to determine whether they are now afflicted with leprosy or not.

They are all persons who have been at the settlement a considerable time, most of them several years. They are to be re-examined because when the members of the legislature visited the settlement some weeks ago these individuals showed no outward sign of the disease, and their re-examination was asked for by some of the legislators.

But when these seven were directed by the superintendent of the settlement to get ready to go to Honolulu to be re-examined they all demurred. They declared they did not want to leave the settlement, even if it should be proved that they were free from the terrible disease. They asked that assurances be given them that if they were found free from leprosy they would be permitted to return to the settlement as kokuas or helpers to lepers.

This is not at all an unusual experience. Though the dread of being sent to the settlement is so great among the Hawaiians that they hide their afflicted until hiding is no longer possible, once they live at the settlement the life there is so care free, so well provided in material comforts, that seldom is there any desire to leave.

DELIGHT FOR SEAGOERS.

Butterflies to Entertain Passengers on an Ocean Liner.

What will they have next on an ocean liner? A few days ago truck farms and strawberry beds were announced as the latest novelties. When they lengthen the ships just a little bit it may be that they will set up a sort of forest preserve at one end, where the gembok and the Thompson gazelle may be hunted without the necessity of going to Africa.

Now it is live butterflies—some of them the size of sparrows—which are to flutter about the Hamburg-American ship Kaiserin Augusta Victoria and beautify the Ritz Carlton winter garden. Perhaps in course of time a few humming birds will keep the butterflies company. Who can tell?

When the brilliant lights are lit at night the butterflies will come to life and circle about among the diners and the growing plants, the beautiful colors of their wings blending pleasantly with the illumination. The diners, of course, will be astonished and delighted. If now a few blue herons, macaws, golden pheasants and other birds were freed upon the big ship the picture would be even more attractive.

CHECK TO SMUGGLERS.

Stencils to Replace Inspection Labels on Incoming Baggage.

Dishonest travelers returning on ocean liners will hereafter have difficulty in eluding customs regulations, according to a Washington dispatch. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Reynolds has issued an order directing that the paper labels heretofore pasted on baggage to indicate that it had been examined by the customs inspectors be replaced in the service by erasible stencils fixing the mark directly on the baggage.

Customs officials have long complained that the pasted labels are frequently removed by the owners of the baggage after the custom house is passed and then used on other baggage not yet examined. The stencils will stop this practice, and as the ink to be used comes off easily the marks will not last long enough to confuse officials.

In Starting a Business Career Look Beyond Your Time in School Into The Great Future

Careful consideration of the great future will certainly bring you to the San Francisco Business College to take your course.

This school not only gives you the most thorough and practical education possible, but it is in close touch with the great business opportunities offered in the rapidly rebuilding city. We could place five times as many men as we have with good firms, where fair wages are paid at the beginning, and every opportunity offered to advance.

Scores of Mendocino county young people have taken courses in our school and we cheerfully refer you to any of them.

We have standing calls from three of San Francisco's great business enterprises for competent young men who are capable of being advanced to high positions.

We can furnish good board and comfortable room for $22.50 per month.

PLAN OF NEW AIRSHIP

Washington Man Building Unique Type of Machine.

HAS GAS BAGS AND PLANES.

G. W. Byron's Aerial Craft Is Combination of Aerodrome and Dirigible Balloon—Inventor Predicts It Will Be Flier of Future and Could Destroy Big Fleet.

George West Byron of Washington is building an airship which will be a combination of an aerodrome and dirigible balloon and which will be totally different from anything heretofore constructed either in the United States or in Europe. Mr. Byron has obtained patents on his aerial craft and believes it will revolutionize navigation of the air.

This latest ship of the clouds consists of two superimposed planes, each forty feet wide and seventy-five feet long, constructed of aluminium tubing, strengthened with manganese bronze and vandium steel, the strongest possible construction. The extraordinary feature of these planes is that the upper one consists of five flat connected gas bags inclosed in a rigid aluminium envelope and the lower plane of seven similar gas bags, also inclosed in a rigid flat envelope. The planes are seven feet apart. This construction gives an air supporting surface similar to the planes in the Wright machine and with the gas bags has the additional buoyancy of a dirigible or a free balloon. Suspended from the lower plane by a strong steel wire network is the car of the airship. This is slightly smaller in area than one of the planes.

In the car is located the engine that will drive the ship. A motor of twenty-five horsepower will be used, which will develop a speed of more than forty miles an hour. A bicycle framework, with four wheels, is attached to the bottom of the car. The ship will rest on this when it is on the ground. One of the ingenious features of this framework is that the wheels fold up automatically when the vessel is in the air.

The propellers—two in front and two behind—are placed at the least point of resistance in the car, the engine being located amidships. The cabin will act as a ballast to preserve the equilibrium, so that the airship will be stable even in a strong wind. The whole machine will weigh when completed only 800 pounds, and it will have a lifting capacity of nearly 1,000 pounds more than its weight, the inventor claims.

Mr. Byron believes this type of airship will be the aerial craft of the future, combining as it does the advantages of a true heavier than air machine and the buoyancy and lifting capacity of a dirigible balloon. With this type accidents such as cost the life of Lieutenant Selfridge in the wreck of the Wright machine last summer at Fort Myer would be impossible.

The inventor in speaking of his machine said:

"An airship of this type, carrying 900 pounds of tubing filled with high explosives and a crew of four men, could destroy the largest battleship fleet in a few hours. It could do it with perfect safety, for the ship would be practically indestructible, even if it were hit many times with shells fired from forts or from the battleships. This type of airship is bound to be the one in universal use in a few years."

It is stated that several Washington capitalists have investigated Byron's plans and have advanced considerable sums for the construction of the airship.

Mr. Byron is unable to say just when the craft will be completed, but when it is finished trials probably will be held near Washington, and if it comes up to the expectations of those interested the United States government will be given the opportunity of purchasing it and the patents under which it is constructed.—Washington Post.

Artificial Flower Fans Next.

Fans made of artificial flowers now are used by women in the most fashionable circles in London and Paris. Mrs. Potter Palmer was one of the first to carry a flower fan, which was of lilies of the valley so delicately cut and colored as to appear natural to the most critical eye. The flowers are placed in a crescent along the tips of ivory ribs, which are left bare and without carving or other decoration. When folded these fans give the effect of flowers gathered compactly in a tall, slender vase. A silk bow is tied to one of the outer ends, the bow offering a color contrast to the flowers used. The fans now are made in lilies of the valley, Parma violets and roses, and it is likely they soon will be seen in the United States.

Ice Skating Rink a Summer Novelty.

The grill room in the Plaza hotel, in New York, will be transformed into an ice skating rink, which will be opened June 15 and kept open until cold weather comes. An orchestra, the members of which will wear white uniforms, will play in the rink each afternoon and evening. Skates will be furnished to persons staying in the hotel, and an effort will be made to restrict the use of the icy floor to those persons and their friends. Arrangements have been made with makers of ice, who will use pipes from the engine room of the Plaza in laying a coating of ice on a zinc floor to be placed over the tile floor in the grill room.

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1909.

FRANCIS J. Heney is in Alaska where he can keep cool, notwithstanding the attacks of his enemies.

WHEN air ships get common many opportunities will present themselves to the young men of the time to work higher up.

CUBA is fast becoming civilized. Recently she had a cabinet crisis, and can now claim a permanent place among the nations of the earth.

WHEN a person stops and considers the workings of the last tariff session, they will give Roosevelt credit for not wanting a second elective term.

THE strife for leading honors among the leading aeronauts has one great advantage for the contestants, and that is there is always room at the top.

OH pshaw! An exchange says that the first candidate announced for gubernatorial honors in this state evidentally wishes to Curry favor with the voters.

SAN FRANCISCO has made the final payment for 1,360 acres of land in the heart of Hetch-Hetchy vallley, and is now on the road to the municipally owned supply of good water.

TALK about your nervous individuals, here is one. A San Diego man stands over a charge of dynamite recently trying to discover why it did not explode. When he discovered it would go off he went all to pieces.

Making cigars out of alfalfa has been discovered in New York. Judging from some cigars that are smoked in town there are some cigar makers who possess the ability of making cigar out of any old thing.

And now it is in order for the Republican leaders to put their fences in shape by commencing to promise tariff revision for the campaign of 1912.

Several states have been made famous as the homes of freak legislature and crazy and funny situations. Now Georgia has jumped into the front rank in states of this class. The prohibitionists there exacted from Governor Brown a solemn promise, a signed pledge, to resist with the veto power any attempt to amend the prohibition law. Now the prohibitionists find their law full of holes. They want to amend it so as to make the sale, delivery, gift of possession of any intoxicant a crime. They are confronted with the governor's written pledge to themselves to veto all amendments. So tied and tangled up, the governor is in a quandry and the anti-prohibitionists and blind tigers are enjoying the sport.

A message received from Senator George C. Perkins in Santa Rosa last Saturday read as follows: "Tariff on hops, reported in conference bill, sixteen cents a pound." This is a gain of four cents per pound over the Dingley bill, and is considered a big victory by the coast growers, as it is from here that the fight was made for the increase. The Payne bill as it passed the House, the tariff was 12 cents per pound. When it reached the Senate the rate was first raised to 15 cents and later to 20 cents. Then the bill went into conference, and it is believed that a compromise was reached by splitting the raise from 12 to 20 cents in half, and allowing an increase of four cents, making the tariff 16 cents per pound.

WITH much rhetoric is is telegraphed from Washington that Taft wins his fight for lower rates, that in the nick of time he has stepped in and saved the people, the President has "over-awed" the conferees—and then we are told that "President Taft has not won a complete victory but he has gained substantial concessions." He has gained "concesions," but what have the people gained? It will puzzle the President and the Republican papers to tell what the people have gained by this extra session of congress, except a clearer idea of how protection works and how they are worked. As an example of how tariffs are made, we are told that when the seven Republican Senators from Washington, Oregon and Idaho refused to vote for the bill unless it provided for a rate of $1.50 per 1,000 feet of rough lumber, Aldrich telegraphed to the lumber interests of those States, told them of the President's ultimatum "and advised them to accept it." The lumber hogs consented to accept the rate of $1.25, thus saving Taft's face and preventing, as they believe, "injury to the party."—Star.

The Hop Market

The market still shows an upward movement. Buyers are seeking contracts but the growers are holding for a higher market. A contract was signed in Santa Rosa last Friday for 100,000 pounds at 20 cents a pound, several small lots have gone for 21 cents, and one contract has been made for 21½ cents. A Ukiah buyer has been instructed to offer from 18 to 20 cents for this years crop by a San Francisco firm of hop dealers.

At Work on Bank

For the past week workmen, under the supervision of Contractor Sullivan of Santa Rosa, have been busily engaged in remodelling the Bank of of Ukiah building. At present the addition to the rear of the structure is being built. As soon as this part of the work is finished the other contemplative improvements will be rushed to an early completion.

Unusual Range of Temperature

Ukiah valley has experienced some peculiar weather here of late. On July 28th. at sunrise, the thermometer registered 57 degrees, and at 1:30 p. m. it reached 104 degrees. On August 9th it ranged from 47 degrees to 94 degrees,—on both days having doubled.

Acquitted of Charge

The case of B. C. Brayton of Point Arena, who was charged with having deer hides in his possession during the closed season, was tried at Point Arena last week, and the defendant acquitted. Mr. Crayton conducted his own defense. On the following day the case against Conway Brayton, arrested on a similar charge, was dismissed.

Baptist Church

The pastor of the Baptist Church commences a series of sermons on next Sunday morning under the general head of "The Christian Ministry and its Modern Message". Mr. M. Rothschild, well known as a pianist throughout the country will preside at the piano and Mr. Vincent Giorno will sing. The public is invited.

The Ukiah Grammar School

The trustees of the Ukiah Grammar school have engaged the same corps of teachers for the ensuing year as were employed during the last term. School will open on Monday, September 13th. The assignment of the teachers for the various grades has been left to the decretion of Professor Flowers.

Marriage Licenses Issued

The following marriage licenses have been issued out of the County Clerk's office during the week. Only two couples have dared to enter the matrimonial game: William Kanawyer and Lorena Bloyd both of Willits; Antone Zinak an Cattarina Pirenote, both of Fort Bragg.

Large Output of Lumber

The Willits Hearld is authority for the following figures regarding the cut of the Diamond D mill, located near Willits, for June. The total output for said month being 1,514.648 feet with a daily average of 58,257 feet. During the first two weeks in July the cut averaged 60,300 feet daily.

UKIAH 25 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

What Was Going on in This Community a Quarter of a Century Ago

(From the Dispatch-Democrat)

The Ukiah City Mills will start up this week, the new roller machinery having been in shape for operation. A trial was made on Wednesday, and a small quantity of most excellent flour was the result leading Isbell & Son to believe that they can manufacture the best flour on the market.

On last Sunday the reduced schedule between Ukiah and San Francisco went into effect. The fare to the metropolis is now $6.50, instead of $7.25, as before the reduction.

Sheriff J. M. Standley, J. Q. White John Taylor, I. N. Stapp and L. D. Hargis started for the mountains this week to be absent for ten days, where they propose to slay the unsuspecting deer, and voracious bear.

J. R. Moore has resigned his position at the Folsom State Prison. His failing health compelled him to take this step. In the future Mr Moore will remain at his home in this city.

At the last meeting of the Mendocino Artesian Water Company the proposed charter was read and approved, and Messrs. J. S. Reed, J. McGlashan, F. Brunner. B. B. Fox and J. L. Burger were elected directors to serve one year. Over $3,000 have been subscribed towards making the venture a success.

The Ukiah Water Company has completed the extension of pipes leading from a point on Orr Creek some two and a half miles from Ukiah with the mains of the old works, which will increase the water supply used by the city.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Ukiah College, held this week, it was voted to locate the college on the Gobbi tract of land, and from which point the college will present a fine view.

Frank Layton has sold his interest in the Hopland hotel to David Gordon formerly of Little Lake valley. Mr Layton will reside in Ukiah in future.

The Bailey Bros., have completed the new office buiding for Dr. E. W. King on School street. It is a one-story concrete structure, and adds much to the appearance of our city.

County Assessor Day and wife have returned home from Bartlett and Saratoga springs after a three weeks visit at these resorts.

A. F. Redemeyer has under way the erection of a banking office on the corner of Perkins and State streets.

A donation party was tendered by the member of the Christian Church to their pastor, H. D. Connell, on last Satuday evening.

Prompt Insurance Settlement

The Heger building, which was burned a few days ago, and also the delicatessen stock of G. W. Stufft, were insured in one of the companies represented locally by J. M. Owen; and the losses have been paid in full, Mr. Owen having received from the company checks for the exact amount for which each of the policies were written. All of the interested parties, including the insurance agent, are pleased at the prompt and satisfactory payment of the losses.

Furnished Liquor to Indians

Another dealer in the illegal traffic of furnishing liquor to Indians has been arrested and has paid the penalty of his crime. Last Saturday evening Sheriff Donohoe captured J. M. Rennick in the act of giving an Indian a bottle of liquor and placed him under arrest. On Monday morning Rennick appeared before Justice of the Peace Crockett and plead guilty and was fined $40, which was immediately paid and the defendant discharged.

Seeking Business Location

E. H. Zarley of Peoria. Illinois, who has been visiting his brother-in-law, Rev. Avalon Brown of this city for the past two weeks left on last Tuesday for the southern part of the state. Mr. Zarley is looking for an opening to locate permanently in California, and he may return to Ukiah as he is very much impressed with this section.

Winnebago a Total Wreck

The steam schooner Winnebago that was wrecked near the Point Arena lighthouse last week is a total wreck. The vessel lies in five fathoms of water, almost competely submerged, her steel hull being ripped open by the sharp reef of rock. A large amount of lumber has drifted ashore from the wreck, and the coasters have been busy getting it to a place of safety.

CONDITIONS OF THE HOP MARKET

Bright Prospects For the Highest Market Price the Past Seventeen Years

Salem, Ore., August 4.—The hop market is greatly excited. Dealers have been going into the country in automobiles to secure whatever hops are still unsold in the growers hands.

Saturday Herman Klaber & Company bought 50,000 pounds from D. B. Taylor of Independence and 20,000 pounds from L. Lacek at the same price.

Julius Pincus bought 40,000 pounds from W. W. Percival, Independence, at 20 cents and he offered to two Independence growers 21 cents.

In fact, 20 cents was offered freely all over the state and several parties attempted to take options at 22½c.

Krebs Bros. were offered Saturday 16 cents for 200 bales of 1908 hops.

Conrad Krebs said that he would not take 18 cents under the present conditions. Another offer of 12 cents was made for 1907 hops and for 1906 crop 8 cents was paid.

The growers rightly feel under the present conditions and situation that 25 cents would be a moderate price and that the situation looks stronger than it did in 1904 when 32 cents was paid.

This is the first time in thirty years that the crop of the world was uniformly poor. At present the continental crop, including Austria, Bohemia and Belgium, is reported 380,000 to 500,000 cwts., and last year the same counties harvested 1,166,000.

England is reported at the present time to have a prospect of 220,000 cwts., and they require 550,000 cwt.

The crop in the United States is estimated as follows:

California, 65,000 to 70,000 bales.

Oregon, 60,000 to 70,000 bales.

Washington, 20,000 bales.

New York, 30,000 to 35,000 bales.

The total maximum of the crop in this country is 195,000 bales against a requirement of 230,000 bales, which leaves a shortage of home consumption of 35,000 bales. It must also be taken into consideration the probable export of 60,000 bales and import 25,000 to 30,000 bales, which leaves a shortage of 65,000 bales for home consmption.

Assuming that the brewers of the United States bought all the hops minus the export in 1908, they only purchased 135,00 bales, because there were exported 75,000 bales, and 205,000 bales were grown.

There were imported at the same time about 30,000 bales, which shows that the brewers of the United States must have consumed a surplus of 70,000 bales.

Taking into consideration that the brewers used up 70,000 bales of surplus last year, they must surely be poorly stocked, and on top of that facing a shortage of 70,000 bales this season, it looks as if the market might advance to 30 cents or better. In fact, no one can tell what the present conditions will bring about. It is, however, an assured fact there has not been such a strong situation since the 46-cent year in 1892.

After Big Game

H. T. Hopper, Maurice Hirsch, Ed Wright and Percy Handy left Ukiah late last week for the northern part of the county on a hunting expedition. They will trail the game in the vicinity of Cummings, and bear, deer and even the playful chipmunk will not be safe while the nimrods are abroad in the land.

Ketchel at Point Arena

Stanley Ketchel, the pugilist who is hailed as the champion middleweight prize fighter of the world, and aspirant to the heavyweight honors, is a visitor at the Point Arena Hot Springs. He is accompanied by his father and younger brother and will spend several weeks at the resort in taking a rest prior to his engagement with Jack Johnson.

Card of Thanks

To J. W. Preston, A. J. Thatcher, my attorneys, to Hon. J. Q. White, and the jury who decided the case in my favor, to the Judges of the Supreme Court, I tender my thanks to all who gave me justice. And my thanks are also due the physicians Dr. Dickinson, Bond and Stout, and my nurses, Mrs. H. J. Randall and Mrs. Pearl Bonham, with ever lasting remembrancs.

Mrs. E. M. Perkins.

Music Class

Mrs. B. F. Butterfield will return to Ukiah Aug 20th and will resume her classes in music Sept. 1st.

ATHLETIC CLUB'S NEXT CONTEST

Coffey and Rich Will Strive For Supremacy in the Welter Weight Division

The Ukiah Athletic Club, will give another boxing contest on August 21st, at Cleland's hall in this city, which promises to be one of the classiest events ever pulled off in this city.

The main event of the evenings sport will be a 20-round contest between Walter Coffey, of Sonoma County, and Chester Rich, of Ukiah, for the welter-weight championship of Sonoma and Mendocino counties.

The two principals are known to be aggressive and hard hitting scrappers, men who always carry the fight to their opponent, and when they clash in the padded ring some torrid work in the line of fisticuffs can be depended upon. Coffey is well known here having engaged in two fights in Ukiah with Grover Binkley, winning one and losing one by the knockout route. Rich has put up several good fights—his last fight was when he knocked Kid Golden out in jig step time in Fort Bragg recently. The lads will weigh in at 145 pounds and both have posted substantial forfeits to guarantee the weight and appearance. Another evidence that the fight will be bitterly contested is that the articles of agreement specify that the winner takes the whole purse.

Coffey and Rich have been undergoing a long and severe spell of training for this match, and both will be in the best of condition when the bell calls them to the center of the ring to begin hostilities.

The club has arranged a preliminary bout, as a curtain raiser to the main event, between young Doohoe of Ukiah, and young Gallagher of Santa Rosa, it is scheduled to go 10 rounds.

Coaster Has Narrow Escape

Clarence Nicks narrowly escaped having his neck broken Saturday. A gentleman's hat blew off and rolled under a bus filled with people. Always ready to do a sunshine deed, Clarence crawled under the wagon to secure the hat, but made the mistake of attempting to pass out between the front and hind wheels. As he was doing so the horses started up and the wheel caught Clarance on the neck, pushing him forward several feet. The presence of mind of Ed Zimmerman prevented the wheel from passing over his neck and undoubtedly breaking it, by catching the wheel, and, with the assistance of others. prevented it from revolving. Clarence was badly bruised but not seriously hurt.

Monthly Weather Report

Following is the summary of the climatic conditions for Ukiah and vicinity for July, as compiled by Dr. Geo. McCowen, voluntary observer:

Temperature—Maximum, 102 degrees, on the 14th., minimum, 41 degrees on the 19th, precipitation, .04 inches; clear days, 29; partly cloudy, 2 days.

Ukiah High School Students

School opens Monday, Aug 23rd. The principal will be in his office, Saturday, August 21st, from 8 till 12, for consultation. It is necessary that all students arrange their programs at that time. Out of town students may attend to this Monday between 8 and 8:45. Pupils will report to classes at 9 a.m.

An Agreement

We, the undersigned, as gentlemen of our word, do hereby agree to close our places of business (barber shop) all day Sundays, and that our hours for business will be as follows, to wit:

Week days from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. sharp, Saturdays, from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. sharp.

Signed:

H. H. Russell, Cecille shop.
A. H. Miller, Magnolia.
J. R. Pool.
Sam Blodes.
H. L. Cameron.
Henry Miller, Palace Shop.

The highest temperature in Ukiah for the past week was 95 degrees on the 8th, and the lowest 40 degrees on the 11th.

F. M. Howell was up from Duncans' Springs on Wednesday.

D. P. Lawson and wife, of Boonville, arrived in Ukiah last Saturday for a short visit.

Isom Frost has been granted a full pardon by the governor.

B. V. Colberg, of Fort Bragg, was a guest at the Palace on Tuesday last.

The Dispatch-Democart only $2.50 a year in advance.

THE PASSING OF A PIONEER

Potter Valley, Aug 10—Luther Perry Grover died at his home in this valley Sunday, August 8, at about 4 p. m., from paralysis brought on by old age.

Mr Grover was born February 8, 1824, in Waterville, Maine, making him 85 years and six months of age at the time of his death. With his parents he moved to Illinois in 1864. In 1864 he crossed the plains with his family. They settled in Napa county were they lived for one year, and then moved to Sonoma were they resided for two years. The family then removed to Potter valley where the deceased resided continuously up to the time of his death. In March, 1852, he was married to Lorinia Lierly, who died February 19, 1876. Three sons survive the marriage—I. W. Grover, of Ukiah, Wm. Grover, of Riverside, and Owen Grover, of Utah. A baby girl died when they were crossing the plains in 1864.

On September 23, 1878, the deceased was married to Mrs. Mary Purpus, of Illinois and she with one son, Leon survive him. They also lost a daughter. These with a devoted step daughter, Mrs Grover of Potter, are left to mourn his loss.

Although not a professor of religion, the deceased was an exemplary citizen of sterling integrity. His family has lost a kind husband and father, and the neighborhood an honored and honest citizen. The interment was in the Potter valley cemetery on Tuesday, the Rev Beasley, of the M. E. Church, South conducting the services.

Although Mr. Grover did not mingle with the outside world, those who knew him best could tell of many acts of christian kindness done by him. We revere his memory. X.

SHORT ITEMS FROM ROUND VALLEY

Covelo, Aug 8.—The ladies of the Improvement Club have now finished the fencing of the Covelo Cemetery, which has been a long needed want. The ladies have worked hard to accomplish this improvement and our people are proud of their efforts. Those who are most deserving of praise are Mrs. Alex Perry, who organized the club in May, 1907. The first officers were Mrs Jessie Redwine, Pres., Mrs Emma Doyl, Sec., Mrs. Alex Perry, Treas, Others deserving mention are Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Amy Redwine, Mrs. Shulter, Mrs. L. Saliday, Mrs. W. Osborn, and Miss Esther Redwine. The club raised about $450 by giving dinners, parties and also by soliciting.

The ladies wish to thank J. S. Rohrbough for his kind assistance in seeing that the work was properly done, and also to thank all who assisted by donating to the cause.

Times are picking up. The prospects of a railroad coming into the valley has caused quite a boom, and we hope to soon be in the swim with other neighboring valleys.

The weather is getting pretty warm.

Hop picking will commence about the 20th of August in the valley. It promises to be a record breaking crop.

The hills surrounding the valley are filled with hunters. Deer is very plentiful and the streams are filled with trout.

Dave Rudee and son were in town last weeks on a business trip. They live in Cloverdale at present.

Harvesting is about over now. There was about an average crop this year and the grain was of a fine quality.

The Indians on the reservation have sold between four and five hundred head of beef cattle at a good figure. They are now flush with money. But they cannot buy fire water as of yore as the saloon men wil not sell it to them. "Cheto"

M. E. Church, South

It has been a surprise to some to note how the interest has kept up at the Southern Methodist church during these summer months. Last Sunday there were 141 at Sunday school and splendid crowds at the preaching services. W. P. Thomas made a very instructive address to the Sunday school on missions and Harold Govette preached at 11, a. m. and 8 p. m. Mrs. Marvin Laughlin sang a solo in the morning and Phillip Joseph in the evening. The beautiful parsonage of this church now being completed will be ready for occupancy in about ten days. The pastor has announced his subjects for next Sunday as follows, 11, a. m. "Paul at Phillipi. 8 p. m. "Things that Accompany Salvation."

Grant & Gibson have decided to retire from business in Ukiah, and therefore offer their stock of groceries and fixtures for sale. For further information address them at Ukiah, or see them at their store in Odd Fellows building.
